Jennifer Youngblood

Supplemental Services Coordinator, TAF Academy

Jennifer was born and raised in Alaska and moved to Federal Way, WA, in 2000 after receiving her BA in Psychology from the University of Oregon. She is pursuing her Masters degree in Leadership and Organizational Development with an expected graduation date of December 2010.

Before coming to TAF, Jennifer worked with a non-profit organization in Federal Way for six years, leading before- and after-school programs. What brought her to TAF was her passion for the idea of being able to give kids opportunities they may not have had otherwise.

In her current position as the Supplemental Services Coordinator for TAF Academy, she creates programs for the Extended Learning Opportunities (ELOs) at TAF Academy @ Federal Way.

Job Description:

Jennifer main responsibilities are to oversee the after-school tutoring program and organize other Extended Learning Opportunities, such as Bridge Building, Strategy Games, SAT Prep, Rock Band, French Club and Art Club. Jennifer works with the Student Ambassador Program and Juicy Job Career Awareness Event Series. She also assists teachers finalize student projects by finding Authentic Audiences, guest speakers for panel presentations and arranging field trips.
